

“Lex has made a huge impact on our nation’s disability community. By gracious and humble example, he has helped our nation -- helped it understand that people with disabilities not only deserve but are guaranteed equal rights to access, employment and all the opportunities every American has.”

(George H.W. Bush, 2005)

